NEW

An AI financial advisor

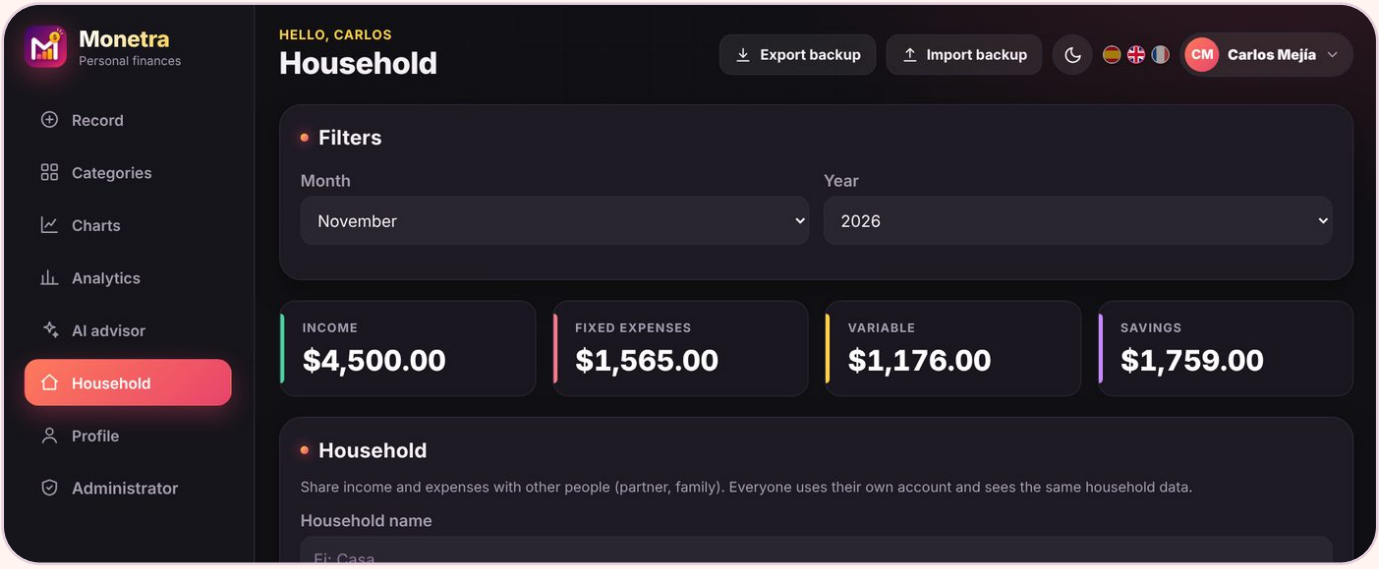

Monetra analyzes your budget and tells you, like an expert, where to cut, how to save more and what share of your income to invest.

- Financial health score instantly
- Plan based on the 50/30/20 rule
- Emergency fund and share to invest
- Only totals are analyzed, never your personal data

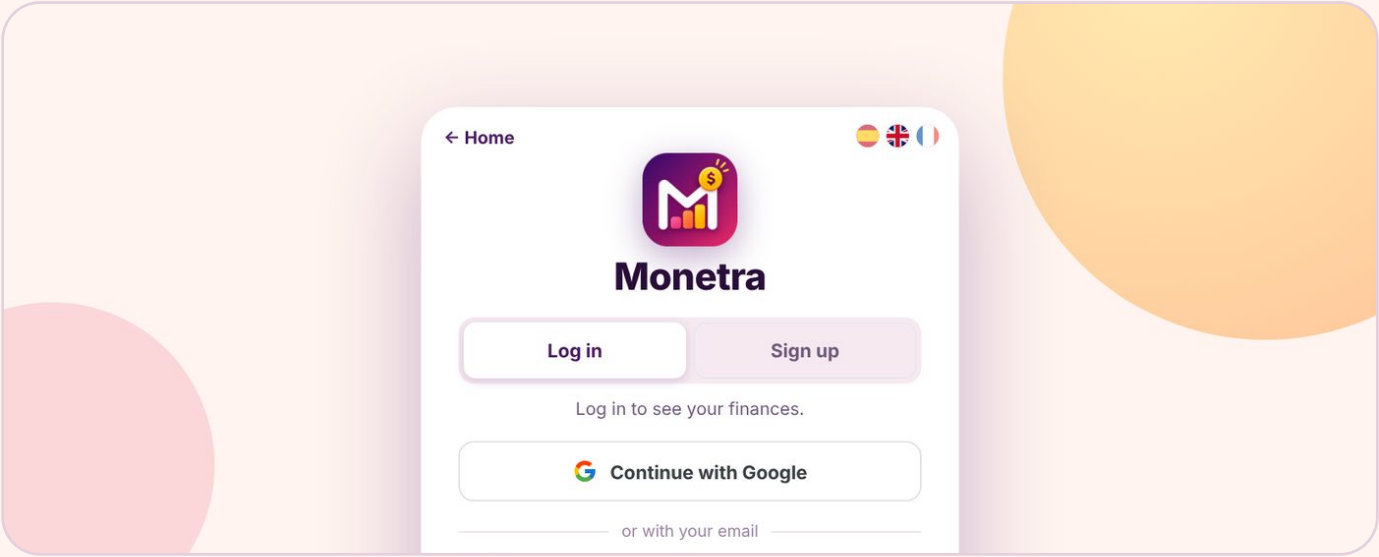

As a couple or a family

Create a household, share the invitation code and everyone sees the same transactions instantly. Each person uses their own account and your personal data stays yours alone.

Private, secure and accessible

- Sign in with Google or with email and password.
- Each user sees only their own information, protected in the cloud.
- Works in the browser on your computer, tablet or phone.
- Available in Spanish, English and French, with light and dark mode.
